VII. THE ASSOCIATION GENERAL EDUCATIONAL COMMUNITY PROGRAM AT WORK.

The Association's General Educational Community Program discussed in the last chapter will find its expression in educational administrative organization and in a well correlated scheme of community religious education. Both of these can be produced only by an intelligent community consciousness on religious education.

The first of these community expressions will be found in a Community Council of Religious Education. This Council is composed of a large number of representative, intelligent citizens, who are willing to assume and finance a community program of religious education. The duties of the Council will be:

First—The Council will study the problems of religious education by conferences and the use of current literature.

Second—The Council will create a community consciousness on religious education through public meetings, the public press, supervised literature, publicity, and organized community activities.

Third—The Council will conduct community surveys along industrial, social, and recreational lines for correct data on which to build a community system of religious education.

Fourth—The Council will seek the development of a community system of religious education in proper relationship to the recognized system of public and parochial schools and to the community welfare movements that seek to render a social service.

Fifth—The Council will adequately finance the established system of community religious education by securing contributions from institutions, individuals, and by tuition fees.

Sixth—The Council shall elect a Board of Directors, which shall act as an Executive Committee for the general management and control of the property and business of the Council.

Seventh—The Council shall elect a Community Board of Religious Education, which shall be charged with the administration of the community system of religious education.

The Community Council of Religious Education organizes by electing a President, Treasurer, Secretary or Clerk, a Board of Directors, and the Community

Board of Religious Education. It delegates the direction of all educational activity to the Community Board of Religious Education.

The Community Board of Religious Education is analogous to the Public School Board of Education. It administers, directs, and has general oversight of the community system of religious education. The duties of this Board consist in securing and electing a Community Superintendent of Religious Education and in passing on and approving the curriculum, textbooks, faculty, and plans for a complete system of religious education in the community.

The creation, then, of: (a) A Community Council of Religious Education, (b) A Board of Directors, (c) A Community Board of Religious Education, and (d) The appointment of a Community Superintendent of Religious Education completes the organization necessary to put in operation the Association's program in a community.

The second community expression of the Association's program forms itself into a Community System of Religious Education. This system will voice itself in:

1. The Sunday Church School, under the control of the local church;

2. The Week-day School of Religion, correlated with the curriculum of the Sunday Church Schools and the public schools;

3. The Vacation Bible or Religious School, operated as a community enterprise during the summer months;

4. The Community Training School of Religious Education, a night college for the training of leaders for community religious enterprises;

5. The Unification of All Welfare Agencies for community efficiency;

6. A Complete Religious Census of the Community;

7. Educational, Industrial, Social, and Recreation Surveys of the community life;

8. The Erection of Common Community Standards for Moral and Religious Development.

When the Community Council of Religious Education supports the above general educational program and includes a specialization program in Children's, Young People's, Adult, and General School Officers' (Administrative) work, it becomes a full-fledged City or County Sunday School Association.

At the Editor's Desk

This first issue of the Third Volume of Conference Pointers is, of course, the record number for the Camp-Conferences of 1918. The previous policy of Conference Pointers was to stretch the records of the Camps over three or four issues. The convenience and desirability of issuing a record number, where the Camp Roster, the list of awards, and all other information of a reference nature might be advantageously grouped together, has changed last year's procedure. This, then, is the Record-Reference number, and will free subsequent issues for the development of the plans of the 1919 Camp-Conferences.

The records contained in this number are official. Addresses of campers have been brought to date from registration and Conference Pointers subscription cards. There will be many mistakes, due to change of address and the failure of the campers to heed the letter of the Camp Director concerning registration and subscription cards. The addresses of the boys in the service are the latest in our information. Many of them have changed, doubtless, in the meantime as the United States moves on Berlin. If conditions justify and there are changes of address reported to the Editor, corrections will be published from time to time in future issues.

The Camp Director sent each 1918 camper a letter with three enclosures, viz.: a registration card for next year's Camp, a Conference Pointers subscription card, and a pledge card for the Camp Improvement Fund. Did you receive your letter?

Have you answered as requested? Consider the matter for a moment. A registration made now assures you of a place in next year's Camp. The one-third registration fee of one dollar is cheap insurance. When the Camp limit is reached, there will be no juggling of the waiting list for second and third year campers who failed to register. All such will take their place on the bona fide waiting list. If you registered at Conference Point for next year's Camp or subscribed for Conference Pointers while there, send in the signed cards that we may have a complete record and that you may receive our official receipt of the transaction. We must have these, if you are to receive Conference Pointers. The U. S. Government will not permit us to send you Conference Pointers unless we have your signed statement. The mailing list will be revised for the November number and you will not receive your copy unless you comply with our request. You will find registration and subscription blanks on the last page of this issue. Do it now!

Approximately sixty-five registrations have been received for next year's Camps from Pennsylvania. The Keystone State intends to hold its place in the Camp life and spirit. The boys' state trophy is in Pennsylvania this year. The Pennsylvania girls have like designs on the girls' state trophy. To that end they have registered a good start.

The Editor will welcome suggestions, literary contributions, and any aid possible from the campers for Volume Three of Conference Pointers.

The Tribes and Camp Recreation

Won by Dakotas, 1918

The Camps of 1918 were lively beyond description and the recreational life of Conference Point was at its high ebb.

1918 Norm or Standard

For the S. F. Shattuck State and Provincial Trophy

Five factors entered into the computation for the trophy, viz.:

1. Pre-registration.
2. Mileage.
3. Letters.
4. Pennants or pillowtops.
5. Notebooks.

All registrations bearing the postmark of February 28 or previous dates were credited with 600 points. Registrations received later were allowed 10 points per month until the opening of the Camp Conference.

Mileage was computed from the capitol of each state, approximately 5 points being allowed for each 100 miles.

Each letter (P. S. M. R.) won in Camp on the Four-Fold Life emblem was awarded 200 points each, making a possible 800 points for a four-fold boy or girl.

Each pennant or pillow top counted 400 points.

This year notebook marks counted on the trophy. Four hundred (400) points were allowed for a perfect notebook—100 per cent and proportionate allowance granted for less than one hundred per cent.

The Order of Geneva

The Honorable Order of Geneva had a most flourishing season in the summer of 1918. Many new leaders were led into the "light" of the 3rd degree, while others traveled the path that leads to the "effulgence,"—reaching either the 1st or 2nd stages of the way. The fortunate initiates follow:

Carl Bolte
Francis Bouquet
Dr. Bowden

The 1919 Camp-Conferences

Next summer is "on the road" and with it the Camp-Conferences of 1919. Already a very large percentage of last year's campers are in receipt of their registration acknowledgments for either the Camp of the Four-Fold Life or the Camp of a Hundred Fires. Present indications point to the greatest camps in the history of Conference Point—and should the war be over and the Kaiser properly spanked, there will be the largest graduating group, so far. Every day, the Director is receiving letters asking for information and answers are pouring back all over the continent. New territory is being reached and new states and provinces will be represented at Conference Point next year. At present it is too early to put in print much of the detail plans for the season of 1919. Like last year, Conference Pointers will develop these from month to month. The same general plan will be carried out and the same group periods will be considered. Larger plans are in the making for the graduate leaders and the third year boys and girls will be given choices in study and play. The detail announcement will follow in a later issue.

The November issue of Conference Pointers will be an "informational" issue with several out-standing articles of note. The December number will be a large "prospectus" number for general distribution.

Plans for property improvement are also under way for Conference Point. These also will be treated in later issues. Have you "registered" or "subscribed," so that you are sure to receive all this information?
